The legal profession proclaims this writing a classic that was cited in a state Supreme Court hearing and listed as an explicit example of will writing.

Its humor is self-evident. The author minced no words, to say the least. We quote:

"I am writing of my will mine-self that des lawyr wand he should have to much money he ask to many answers about the family. First thing i want done i dont want my brother Oscar got a darn things. I got he is a mumser he done me out of four dollars fore-teen years since.

"Tell mama that six hundred dollars she has been looking for ten years is berried from the bak-house behind about ten feed down. She better let little Fredrick do the digging on count it when he comes up.

"Pastor Lienty can have three hundred dollars if he kisses the Book he wont preach no more dumb-head talks about politics. He should a roof on the meeting house with and the elders should the bills look at.

"Mama should the rest get, but is want it so that Adolph should tell her what not she should do so no more irishers sell her vak-en cleaner, they noise like heck and a broom dont cost so much.

"I want it that mine brother Adolph be my executor and i want it that the judge should please make Adolph plenty bond put up and watch him like heck Adolph is a good business man but only a dumkpoth would trust him with a bested pfennig.

"I want darn sure that Schlemial Oscar done nothing get. tell Adolph he can have hundred dollars if he prove to Judge Oscar don't get nothing, that darn sure fix oscar."

100 Draw Bait For Reduction Of Milam Wildlife

Milam County Health Unit officials reported today that about 100 county farmers and ranchers picked up poisoned bait for use in the anti-rabies epidemic drive.

An official of the U. S. Fish & Game Commission distributed the mixture of ground horse meat, pork cracklings and strychnine alkaloid poison to the countians under provisions set by the Milam County Commission to reduce the number of predator animals in the county spreading rabies to cattle and other domestic animals.

Elmer Rinn, 45, of Sharp Community, who was bitten by a rabid pet housecat, is taking a series of anti-rabies shots this week. He is the only countian bitten by a rabid animal.

A number of cattle have died from rabies in the Central Texas-Milam area and the state declared a rabies epidemic in a four-county area four weeks ago.

Officials said the bait is lethal only for 10 days. And they urged users to keep their domestic pets penned for about two weeks while the bait is out.

The US Game & Fish representative said another day of bait distribution would be set if there was a continued need for it.

Officials said the program is designed to reduce, not destroy the fox and skunk population.

A 15-voice chorus will back up the front-line of comedy with vocal favorites such as "Dry Bones," "Darktown Strutters" and other popular minstrel favorites.

Cold Weather Slows Sandblasting Work On Milam Courthouse

Workmen of the Penner & Chaney construction company were halted by frigid weather Wednesday as work progressed on sandblasting the north side of the Milam County courthouse.

Areas already blasted show a white clean surface cleared of stains, fungus and stone discoloration.

Workmen have 30 working days to complete the project which includes sandblasting the entire stone exterior, caulking the seams and sealing the outside stone surface with weatherproofing solution.

The Fort Worth firm began work over the weekend. The outside woodwork of the county structure will be repainted under a separate contract, officials said.

Bloodmobile Due Friday In Cameron; 70 Pints Needed

The Red Cross bloodmobile will be in Cameron, Friday from noon to 6 p. m. at the Methodist Fellowship Hall, according to an announcement by Richard W. Moseley, local blood chairman.

Seventy pints of blood will be the quota for the area. It is imperative that the quota be reached due to the exceptional demands being made on the blood center due to sickness and accidents, he said.

In recent weeks the supply of blood on hand reached the critical stage. Danger of running short of blood can be prevented only if quotas are reached by each city visited by the bloodmobile.

Arrangements for the operation of the blood center are being made by Mrs. F. E. Jackson, chairman of the operating personnel; Dr. Clifford Swift, chairman of the doctors; Moseley, who is in charge of publicity and recruitment; and Dr. S. H. Richardson, chairman of the health and sanitation committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Knebel Hired As School Head

The Cameron School Board elected Dr. Earl H. Knebel (pronounced knee-bal), 39, of Texas A & M as new Cameron school superintendent and rehired two other school administrators in meetings this week.

The board rehired J. R. Young, present Yoe High School principal, as a classroom teacher and rehired Leon Brady as elementary principal at Ada Henderson. Also rehired was A. G. Whiteside as principal of O. J. Thomas School.

Dr. Knebel, now an associate professor at Texas A & M, will begin his duties July 1 with a three-year contract.

He was the board's choice of about 30 school officials interviewed for the post and another 26 who applied, according to Max Howard, board secretary.

Dr. Knebel succeeds Wiley Loughmiller, who resigned as superintendent effective at completion of his contract June 31.

FB Exec Speaks

A. R. Grauer, executive director of the Texas Farm Bureau Saturday advised Milam Farm Bureau members and guests to take interest in the election of candidates this year in the interest of improving the agriculture picture.

Grauer was the featured speaker at the annual Farm Bureau celebration and talent show Saturday night at the First Methodist Fellowship Hall.

About 400 attended the program. Speaking in the absence of Texas FB President J. H. West, who was unable to attend, Grauer said there would be a "lot of porkbarrelling this year to get votes. In an election year it is hard to tell a Republican from a Democrat or a conservative from a liberal," he said.

He advised the Farm Bureau audience to watch their political candidates who "seem to play football with agriculture."

He cited the wheat industry which has asked for a lower support price to meet competition. Wheat growers are trying to get a market for selling, not for storage he continued.

Gus Guenther, Farm Bureau District 8 delegate, urged Farm Bureau members to get behind the Texas farm organization's drive for better public relations for agriculture and cited the "power in people" in getting officials who will help agriculture.

The two speakers were introduced by O. G. Tumlinson, Milam Farm Bureau president.

Following the talks, about 20 contestants competed for top prizes in the talent contest.

Winners were: Juniors — 1. Madlyn McClaren; 2. Sharp 4-H square dancers; and 3. Jan Stewart.

Seniors — 1. Rita Stewart; 2. Ward Paschall; and 3. Linda Ethridge.

Winners in the swine contest were: Kathy Abel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floris Abel, Rt. 1 Buckholts; and 2. Larry Jungmann son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jungmann, Rt. 2, Buckholts.

Council Approves Insurance Outline

The City Council Tuesday afternoon voted to take out workmen's compensation insurance on city employees and discussed the need for action in solving Cameron's future water problems.

Councilmen voted unanimously to start workmen's compensation coverage for city employees effective March 1, allowing insurance coverage for employees injured or killed while performing city duties.

The policy coverage will be paid out of departmental budgets accounting for a $75,000 city employee payroll. Yearly premium is

Mayor Bassell Wilson urged councilmen to consider steps to procure future water resources for Cameron in the event of drought similar to the dry years of 1954-55-56 and for prospects of industrial development here.

Councilmen voiced opinions against spending an estimated $42,000 to raise the level of the present city dam on Little River, but favored dredging the river channel ahead of the dam for several hundred feet.

About $32,000 in bond money is earmarked for further water improvements.

Wilson asked that a representative from Cameron meet with the Brazos River Authority to discuss possibilities of assuring Cameron water in the event if future need from water reservoirs above the city.

He said he would meet with officials of the BRA to seek additional water allotments for Cameron.

"I think the council should concern itself with more major projects such as our water problems than with less significant things like garbage and dog ordinances," Wilson said.

Wilson said he had already discussed possibilities of obtaining additional water with officials of the BRA, including Churchill Duncan and Oxsheer Smith, Cameron, a member of the BRA board.

Councilmen also authorized new city attorney Charles C. Smith, Jr. to continue collection of about $24,000 in delinquent city taxes. The project was started last year and brought in about $20,000 in back city taxes.

The new workmen's compensation insurance was taken out with Camp Insurance Agency. Officials said two other Cameron agencies had been asked to figure the cost, but had not turned in insurance programs.

Police Advise Extreme Caution; Truck Jackknifes

Old Man Winter Tuesday night struck the Cameron, Milam County area with a blast of cold air and icy drizzle that caused hazardous road conditions and closed several area schools.

Only one minor accident was reported on county highways, but state highway patrol and local police cautioned drivers to be "extremely cautious in driving the streets and roads in Cameron and around the county".

The wintery blast was part of a norther that struck the entire state Tuesday afternoon, bringing temperatures down to freezing from mild 50-degree readings in short hours.

School officials reported that schools at Buckholts, Milam, Sharp Marak in the county were closed Wednesday due to driving conditions for buses. The Cameron Schools and St. Anthony's Parochial School in Cameron were also closed. City schools will reopen Monday.

Police Chief Chester Simons said that city streets were slick and that bridges on county roads and highways were particularly dangerous before State Highway Dept. trucks began sanding them early Wednesday.

The ground was crested Wednesday morning with the first layer of snow and ice in recent years. Rainfall starting Tuesday night turned into sleet by the early morning hours.

A semi-truck trailer jackknifed Wednesday morning about two miles west of Cameron on US 190, but a wrecker pulled the vehicle back on to the road. The truck driver continued on his westward route after his vehicle was put back on the highway.

No accidents were reported as of 10 a. m. Wednesday on Cameron Streets.

Meanwhile, several drivers in the county were pulled from gullies or ditches after sliding off the road early Wednesday. No accident damage or injuries were reported.

Weathermen said it was the worst storm of the year and the first winter snow-ice storm in Central Texas in several years.

About three weeks ago, a snow storm struck the Giddings-Brenham area southeast of Cameron, but no snow fell in this area.

WEATHER B-R-R-R-R!

Temperatures dipped to 25 Wednesday morning as a Norther belted Milam County and the rest of Texas full force. It was the worst storm of the year and first freezing snow in several years in the vicinity. Rainfall was .73 of an inch Saturday and .29 of an inch Tuesday.

Early Filing Of Returns Brings Early Refunds

Taxpayers of the Austin District are heeding the advice of District Director R. L. Phinney to file their Federal income tax returns early so they may receive any refund due them as quickly as possible.

Phinney said 330,000 individual tax payers already have filed their 1959 returns presumably because many of them may have a refund coming and they are eager to get it.

"We have started to process the returns already filed," Phinney said. "If they are in perfect order and a refund is due, our early processing will speed up the refund checks accordingly. Those returns which require a pre-refund audit will take longer to process, but in every such case, the taxpayer will be notified by letter of the reason for delay. Even the pre-refund audit may be completed sooner because of early filing."

Phinney again repeated his tips for early filers who want to receive any refund due them as quickly as possible.

One is not to omit any essential information on your return, such as your signature (and that of your spouse if it is a joint return), and the W-2 tax withholding form.

Another is to print your address as legibly as you can print it.

And the third is not to write for a few weeks asking where your refund is because replies to such letters only slow down the whole refunding process.

"CORVAIR HANDLES BETTER, STEERS MORE EASILY, RESPONDS MUCH MORE QUICKLY AND HOLDS THE ROAD MORE SECURELY THAN ANY STOCK FOUR-DOOR SEDAN EVER MADE IN THE U.S."

—Jim Whipple, Car Life

If you think we're enthusiastic about Corvair, leaf through the leading automotive, sports and science magazines and see what the experts are saying. Then, by all means, drive one yourself.

"Corvair's steering is so light that at parking speeds it feels power assisted; it is so precise as to be absolutely without play, and it is fast enough to allow complete control over every situation."

—Karl Ludvigsen, Sports Cars Illustrated

"Steers like a feather and is extremely quick. . . . This is a beautifully designed automobile, engineered by real pros. . . ."

—Tom McCahill, Mechanix Illustrated

"Most surprising thing to me outside of the excellent handling characteristics was the feeling of roominess inside. . . . I didn't have the sensation of driving a small car and the headroom was greater in the Corvair than in some standard size cars. . . ."

—L. H. Houck, Automotive News

"So far as shopping goes, the Corvair is a housewife's dream. It's small and easily maneuvered without any power steering, and so easily parked . . . it's a lot easier to unload a cart full of groceries into a front trunk at the supermarket than it is into a rear one."

—Rosemary Francis, Popular Science

"I want to state as firmly as I can that the Corvair handles as beautifully and is as safe as—if not safer than—any family car on the road today."

—Jim Whipple, Car Life

"There is none of the typical whine normally associated with rear-engined vehicles. Inside the car, the effect is quite unlike anything we have ever experienced. It almost seems that there is no engine, and the general effect is so quiet as to be almost uncanny."

—John R. Bond, Road & Track

"No written word can suffice for the genuine pleasure that you will receive behind the wheel of America's newest and most advanced contribution to transportation. . . . It is a great car."

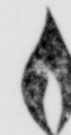

—Don Stewart, Motor Life

"Interest in these workshops is growing, because they give pastors of Spanish speaking missions and pastors of sponsoring churches a better understanding of one another's problems," said Dr. L. D. Wood, coordinator of Language Missions for BGCT.

Dr. Bernon Elmore, pastor of the Baptist Temple, San Antonio, will bring the closing message at both the morning and evening sessions.

Day Of Prayer To Be Observed

The Cameron Council of Church Women will sponsor a World Day of Prayer service March 4 at the First Presbyterian Church.

The observance will mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the World Day of Prayer program. Mrs. Pat Kelley will be in charge of the service which begins at 3 p. m.

Mrs. H. L. Green Sr., chairman of the local council, has urged all church women in the community to attend.

million women in the American churches, asks church women of a different country to prepare the service for the twenty-four hour prayer vigil which spans 145 countries on six continents.

The Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada wrote the service for the seventy-fourth observance around the theme from 1 Corinthians 3:9, "Labourers Together with God." Canadian church women themselves joined in World Day of Prayer thirty-nine years ago, and will take part in 1960 from the Atlantic to the Pacific and to the frozen north.

This annual chain of supplication passes unbroken across oceans and continents from the first invocation voiced at dawn in the tropical Tongas. By nightfall its message of hope and peace will have followed the sun's arc until the last prayers are murmured by dwellers on icebound St. Lawrence Island in the Bering Sea.

Mrs. James Evans, national director of the Day for UCN, points out that services are reported from many hamlets. Their very names dramatize the romance of the settling of America and those who pioneered in faith and hope.

Offerings, which are equally divided between Home and Foreign Missions, aid agricultural workers in their country as well as Indian-Americans. Abroad, among other things, they help develop Christian leadership in the new African and Asian countries; provide new literates with reading materials; aid women students in eleven Asian Christian colleges; set up pilot projects for village children; support French Cameroon orphanages, bring overseas students to the Student Volunteer Movement Quadrennial conference December 1960; and aid a Bolivian church women's conference.

"Through these projects, which our yearly observance makes possible," notes Mrs. Evans, "we demonstrate to the world the unlimited power of prayer and the depth of our concern for God's children everywhere."

Spring Is Vital To Life

We look to the advent of spring as something beautiful. But it's more than that.

Trees that bloom in the spring also produce food and shelter.

Much of Texas is rolling plains with some desert and mountainous areas. Fortunately for the outdoorsman, we still have millions of acres of trees throughout the state. And this timberland is as important to wildlife as are our mountains and our plains.

The average person doesn't realize the vast forest resources within the boundaries of Texas.

For instance: Texas' forests lands cover 22,033,900 acres, more than 55 per cent forested. Commercial forests in the state reach the staggering total of 12,171,900 acres, with a saw - timber volume of 27,239,300,000 board feet.

These Texas timberlands grow wood for some 1,000 mills and factories that provide fulltime jobs for 43,000 persons. They earn in excess of $138,000,000 per year and the goods they produce are valued at over a half billion dollars.

These are values in cold dollars and cents. Trees are a renewable resource. They continue to grow and new forests can be brought along to take the place of those consumed by the industry.

An interesting feature of this tremendous forest area is that Harris County has more than a million acres of forest land. Yet the largest city in the South - Houston - the county seat of Harris County, has more than a million population.

Houston County, in East Texas, is second in forest area with 88,400 acres.

Thus we have the picture that forests unfold in the economy of Texas. Too few, however, realize the great benefits to our wildlife, which also is a renewable resource.

The East Texas forest land once was a haven for wildlife. There were plenty of deer, turkey, bear and smaller game. The Indians didn't destroy it. The white men did.

There were game outlaws throughout the forest lands of East Texas. They poached. They killed game out of season. They killed more than the bag limit and were responsible for many other outrages against wildlife.

However, their's were not the only sins.

Many of the land owners, looking first to the dollar, with no eye on posterity, cut down hardwoods, to raise more pine.

As a result the crop of mast disappeared on thousands of acres of land. There was no food for the wildlife.

Unfortunately, some of these land owners were some of the major ones. They could see no possibilities in anything but tall pines.

And they weren't too particular about polluting the streams either. They were responsible for the killing off of many fish.

It has been only within the last few years that many land owners have been sold on the idea that hardwood and pine can grow on the same area, without harming each other. Now there is a comeback in much of the hardwood area.

This is a result of work being carried on by the U. S. Forest Service, the State Forest Service and the Game & Fish Commission. None of it would have been possible however, without the full cooperation of all the land owners.

More than two - thirds of all the forest land in Texas is held in tracts of less than 5,000 acres.

Farmers own some 21 percent of all the forest land in Texas.

The governments, state and federal, own only about 7 percent. Forest industries own another 27 per cent. All of which means that some 45 percent of the forest areas is held by other private owners.

Another tremendous hazard to wildlife of Texas forests is fire.

Experts estimate that more than 99 per cent of all forest fires are man - made. Man will burn off thousands of acres of timber each year and in turn destroy a great deal of wildlife.

Unfortunately many of these fires are caused by carelessness. Others have been set by responsible persons, for one reason or another whatever the cause, wildlife suffers most.

It is much easier to grow a tree than it is to reproduce wildlife.

We can go to their areas and buy a thousand seedlings and restore a piece of property. They will stay there and grow. But with wildlife it is entirely different.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

Can you remember when, to deep his straw hat from sailing away-- (they were called "sailors," by the way) -- a man had a little black cord, one end of which was attached to the hat and the other end was hitched in the button-hole of the coat lapel? That's one fashion that should never have been abandoned -- as far as West Texas is concerned.

An interesting sidelight on the Bryan - McKinley campaign of 1896 is provided by Oscar Ameringer in his "If You Don't Weaken" (Henry Holt and Company.) Ameringer lived in Canton, Ohio, which was the home of the Republican presidential nominee. McKinley, it will be recalled, conducted a "front porch" campaign while Bryan made the most extensive speaking tour the nation had ever seen.

Ameringer, as a member of the Grand Army Band, was on hand when the delegations arrived by train and the band would then lead the parade to McKinley's home. The young musician heard all but one of McKinley's speeches.

When Bryan was to speak in Canton, Ameringer went to hear him -- but did not. The speech was made from the rear of the train. The crowd was so vast that Ameringer was unable to get close and, when Bryan began to speak, it seemed that "every switch engine in the state was slamming and bumping more cars around that I ever dreamed could be assembled in Canton's modest switchyard. Odd, how they happened to be busy just then."

Mark Hanna, McKinley's campaign manager, had assessed banks, insurance companies and big industries in general to raise an unprecedentedly huge campaign fund, a circumstance which might shed light on the reason for the noise during the speech.

After hearing all but one of McKinley's speeches and not hearing Bryan at all, whom did Ameringer vote for? He voted for Bryan.

Why do people wait until the first norther hits before they take armloads of winter clothing to the cleaner's?

Hopkins Completes

First Basketball Year As Coach

Jerry Hopkins completed his first full year at the reins of the Yoemen basketballers last week when Cameron fell to the Belton. A season record of three wins and 11 losses against a 3-5 district mark was tributary to the 25 year old coach taking in consideration the team was made up of mostly unexperienced sophomores and juniors.

David Barkemeyer was the only Junior mainstay with past experience. Barkemeyer had his best year and finished the season with a total of 334 points. Last year Turner Newton led the squad with 350.

Dwayne Juergens was second on the list with 179 points. He was the only senior on the squad.

A helping hand from the sophomore class was given by Chester Simons, Jerry Woodum and Chris Gay. Simons totaled up 89 points, Woodum 64, and Gay 3.

Ed Lierman was successful in his A team basketball debut. He was good for 74 points. This was his first year after seeing some B squad action in 1957.

A good thick broiled steak, stuffed twice-baked potatoes, fried onions drenched with soy sauce—the main course; apple pie, cheese, and coffee for dessert! This meal, guaranteed to please The Man, is the perfect way to make an occasion of any meal. Starring are two of Idaho's famous foods, Russet potatoes and Sweet Spanish onions—plentiful, economical, and family favorites.

Really Good Stuffed Potatoes

Bake the desired number of "Idahos", scrubbed but not oiled, in a 400 to 450 degree F. (hot) oven to make a crisp skin. Test for doneness with a thin skewer so as not to mar the skin. When tender, roll each in mitts hands; cut top off lengthwise. Scoop out potato; whip or rice. Add enough hot milk or cream to make fluffy, some butter, salt, pepper. Or use thick dairy soured cream and snipped chives, adding shredded Cheddar or Swiss cheese if you like. Refill potato shells, piling high. Top with butter, cheese if desired. Return to hot oven to heat and brown, 10 to 15 minutes. May be cooled, wrapped individually in heavy foil, and quick-frozen for later use.

Soy Butter-Fried Onions

Pan-fried in butter and doused with soy sauce, Idaho's mild-mannered Sweet Spanish onions make wonderful fare. Slice these large unpeeled onions about 3/4-inch thick. The dry outer skin will slip off the slice. Arrange onion slices in large skillet, two layers deep. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons water or chicken stock. Cover tightly. Simmer until just fork-tender.

Sprinkle with coarse-grind black pepper. Now for browning—add 1 tablespoon or more of butter for each onion, depending upon size, tucking bits of butter in under the slices. Brown gently, uncovered. Don't stir. Carefully turn, using a pancake turner and broad spatula to prevent slices from breaking. Sprinkle liberally with soy sauce. Salt won't be needed. Good too for barbecue meals.

20,000 Checks Have Been Mailed To First Return Filers

R. L. Phinney, Internal Revenue District Director for the Austin District, said 20,000 refund checks have been mailed to Austin District taxpayers. They went to those taxpayers who were the first to file their 1959 returns and who had a refund due them.

"Some of the early filers," Phinney said, "have been notified by letter that their refund checks will be delayed because their returns require a pre-refund audit. But because they did file early, their pre-refund audit already is underway and they therefore will receive any refund check due them that much sooner."

"So," Phinney advises, "file now and get any refund due you that much sooner, too. And make sure that you do not omit any essential information, such as your signature (and that of your spouse if it is a joint return), and your W-2 tax withholding form. Print your address as legibly as you can print it and, finally, don't write in asking where your refund check is because replies to such letters only slow down the entire refunding process."

CITY ...

Will We Join Rabies Fight?

Response has been excellent to the call for co-operation from Milam Countians to use poisoned bait in an effort to reduce the predator animal population in the area.

Officials at the Milam County Health Unit Friday said that they were running out of bait during the first day of distribution in the fight against the spread of rabies.

Last week a man from Sharp was bitten by a pet cat that proved to be rabid. He is taking the necessary anti-rabies shot series.

In Rockdale, schedules have been set up to have cat and dog owners meet with veterinarians to have the house pets inoculated against the disease.

This move could well be repeated in Cameron for the safety of Cameron children against the dread rabies disease.

The possibility of a rabid animal biting a child in this city is always there when the county has enough rabid animals loose to be declared in epidemic proportions.

And when a cat, much less likely to contract rabies than other small animals, proves to be rabid and bites its owner, it is time we take the problem seriously in town as well as in county.

County residents are responding enthusiastically to the request for co-operation, health unit officials report. The efforts of county residents to reduce predators is a start in gaining control of the epidemic.

But to make the work complete, the county towns' co-operation would reduce the possibility of spreading the disease to the more concentrated population.

There should be no regrets about getting our pets vaccinated when we think of the problems that can be solved by doing it now. And ridding our streets of stray dogs no one wishes to claim would go well in the program.

The total program can stamp out almost any threat of rabies if we act now.

COUNTY ...

The Cost Of Candidacy ...

Prospective candidates and Democratic party officials are voicing growing concern over the increased cost of running a primary election and the resulting cost of filing for office for each candidate.

The cost factor, in fact, has reduced the number of candidates this year to an ebb of 29 candidates on the county primary ballot.

Democratic party officials note that this is the least number of candidates for the Democratic primary in the past 22 years.

The problem is this: Each candidate must pay a percentage of his four-year salary to support the party ballot. If the cost of the primary is less than the total contributed on this percentage-of-election-cost basis, the candidates receive a refund after the primaries are over.

Costs range upward to about $1,680 for the district judge's post just to get a candidate's name on the ballot. Percentage this year is 3 1/2 percent of the candidate's four-year salary.

Several possibilities can be mentioned for reducing the cost this year or in any future primary election year:

ONE—Call for volunteer help at the 39 polling places to count the ballots.

TWO—Reduce the number of voting boxes in line with the center of population, both town and rural.

THREE—Urge more candidates to run to spread out the current cost of running for office.

The latter possibility is the least likely prospect until the cost is brought down.

Using volunteer workers at polling places would mean arousing vital, public-spirited interest in the democratic process of voting.

And reducing the number of voting boxes in keeping with the concentration of population or convenient centers for voting would displace traditional voting boxes which now poll only a few dozen votes per box.

The fact is that fewer candidates will run for office each year if the cost of filing continues to rise.

The filing fee is only part of modern electioneering. Candidates still must travel widely, distribute campaign material and meet the cost of advertising their candidacy.

It is a misfortune to place political candidacy on "ability to pay" status. It is in keeping with a democratic process to base candidacy on qualifications and desire to serve the electorate.

Committee Forms Economy Study

AUSTIN — With an eye on the growing cost of government and need for new taxes, a committee from the Texas Senate has launched an economy study.

Overall state budget for the present two-year spending period is $228,000,000 more than for the previous two-year period. It was an increase of about 11 percent. There is every indication that the next Legislature will be faced with demands to raise salaries and expand and improve state services in approximately the same proportion.

Some of the cost increase is attributed to sheer quantity. With Texas population increasing an estimated 26 per cent from 1950-60, there are more youngsters to educate, more patients for state hospitals, more cars wearing out the roads.

More significantly, the percentage of oldsters and youngsters is increasing faster than the percentage of middle aged people. Older and younger people generally up revenue needs — for welfare benefits and schooling — but contribute less in taxes than income-earning middle-agers.

Some of the increase in costs results from a drive for quality — better schools, hospitals and highways.

With undeniable money needs so great, the Senate committee was set up to seek out any indications of extravagance or waste and "see if we are getting our dollar's worth for the money we're spending."

As a starter, the committee, headed by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney, agreed to hold its own expenses to the bare minimum.

RIDGES TOO LOW

State Highway Department Engineers are faced with the task of re-designing bridges for the interstate highways to conform with a U. S. Defense Department requirement for a 16-foot clearance.

Texas has 254 bridges in the interstate system which do not meet the newly announced overhead clearance requirement.

U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, which works with the Highway Department in planning the joint federal and state road system, has specified only a 14.5 foot clearance.

Bridges cost approximately $140,000 apiece, and re-designing to meet the new standards would cost about 55 per cent of the original cost. By-passes for transport of missiles and other defense equipment are being considered.

MARATHON WATER HEARING When the subject is water development, Texas always seems to have a few million well-chosen Hearing before the State Water works to exchange.

Board over whether Houston and the Trinity River Authority shall receive a permit to build a new Trinity reservoir is one of the longest ever held. It has been in progress off and on since November.

Main opponent is the San Jacinto River Authority which wants Houston to use its money developing the San Jacinto rather than the Trinity.

Johnson, Poage Speak On Cuba

SENATE ...

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson said Monday that the communist conspiracy to invade the Western Hemisphere "took its biggest step forward" in the signing of a commercial agreement between the Soviet Union and Cuba.

In his weekly radio broadcast to Texas, Johnson described the arrangement as "more than a simple commercial agreement."

"There is a question of economic penetration," he said. "And one of the most interesting facts is that Mikoyan made it clear at a press conference that the $100 million loan would be accompanied by Soviet technicians who would help the Cubans."

"This is one of the classical patterns of communist penetration. There is nothing new in the story except for one very basic and important fact — it has happened right at our doorstep."

Since everybody is in favor of an adequate defense system, and everybody is in favor of a balanced budget, everybody in Washington seems stumped, they don't know where to turn to get more money for guided missiles, so I took off from work out here on my Johnson grass farm the past week and thought.

I now have a solution to the problem. Don't know why nobody has thought of it before.

The way to finance the guided missile program is to do it on the installment plan.

Here's the situation. Most Americans seem to be on the installment plan; two-thirds of the cars sold are sold that way, three-fourths of the refrigerators, nine-tenths of the television sets, etc.

Nearly everybody has weekly and monthly installment payments to meet, and how they do it nobody knows.

But they do it. Take television. A few short years ago, before television came in, everybody was

The LITTLE RIVER Philosopher

THIS WEEK:

New Plan To Finance More Guided Missiles For U. S.

Dear editor:

"Where're we gonna get the money?" seems to be the main problem confronting the experts who contend the United States ought to spend more for defense.

Some of the top missile and space scientists have testified they could do a lot more and close the missile gap if they had more money to work with, but on the other hand expert economists have testified that balancing the budget is important to survival too, there is such a thing as getting a nation too far in debt.

Since everybody is in favor of an adequate defense system, and everybody is in favor of a balanced budget, everybody in Washington seems stumped, they don't know where to turn to get more money for guided missiles, yet here came television and everybody bought a television set. They just added it to the load and kept grinding.

So, all Washington has to do to finance the missile program is pass a law adding say five dollars a month to everybody's installment payments. I figure that'd bring in about four billion dollars extra a year, and everybody knows survival is worth five dollars a month.

If not, have them look at it this way: if Russia, figuring we're unprepared, sends over its batch of intercontinental ballistic missiles and blasts this country, some of them are bound to hit most of the electrical power plants, and did you ever stop to think what life would be like every night with the electricity off and no television?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

However, since I am kept too busy trying to dig up enough money for the taxes we already have, I will be unable to make the race for none of the above mentioned positions. So, I pass it on further and if any of our lawmakers get any benefit out of it, I shall be well pleased.

Progress Report on "Operation 65"

Present TP&L Company plans call for power plants and other facilities by 1965, having a net capacity at 1,500,000 kilowatts.

Our plans anticipate electric power needs as far as 20 years in the future. Preliminary work is already in progress on the Valley Stream Electric Station to be completed in Fannin County in the latter part of 1962. By that time, work on still other generating capacity will be under way ... and so on.

A similar program of planning and building adequately for future needs is carried on by business-managed electric utilities throughout the nation, with the result that this nation will continue to lead all others in the production of electric power. In electric power production, the U. S. now leads Russia, its closest rival, by 115 million kilowatts, and, by 1965, this lead is expected to increase to 130 million kilowatts.

This continuing program of expansion carried on by the business-managed companies is done with private funds by companies which constitute one of the nation's most important tax-paying industries. That's why spending your tax money for further development of federal electric power is wasteful and unnecessary.

TP&L, a business-managed, tax-paying, investor-owned electric utility company, takes pride in nearly one-half century of service to North, Central and East Texas and pledges to continue its program of providing for the electric power needs of today and planning for the needs of tomorrow.

Profits On Sale Of Some Homes Not Taxable

If you sold or bought a home during 1959, you will be interested in what A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service at Temple, Texas has to say.

Profits on a home sale is the difference between what you paid for the home - plus your expense on it for permanent improvements and your sale price. However, if you use up the profit in buying another home within a year, or building a new home, occupied within 18 months after you sold the old one, your profit is NOT taxable.

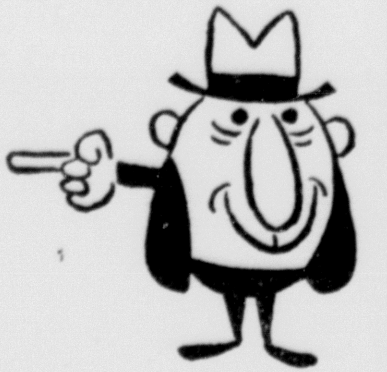

The Revenue representative explained that the new home cost must at least equal the adjusted sale price of the old home, if none of your profit is to be taxable. By "adjusted sale price" is meant the full sale, minus commissions and the expense of decorating within 90 days before the date of your sale contract.

Taxpayers with questions on this and other tax subjects should phone or visit the Internal Revenue Service Office.

New Method For Controlling Boll Weevils Promising

COLLEGE STATION — A late season chemical and cultural control program at College Station in 1959 showed promise in reducing the overwintered population of boll weevils. This reduction appears to be great enough to delay the start of boll weevil control programs the following year to effect substantial savings in insecticide costs.

The program consists of chemical treatments just prior to and during the harvest period to prevent the weevil from going into diapause, the physiological condition in which they survive the winter. These insecticide treatments are followed by stalk destruction if harvest is completed before frost kills the cotton.

Results obtained to date indicate this practice may be an effective eradication measure, according to Dr. J. R. Brazzel, associate professor, Texas A & M Department of Entomology, who worked on the project. He said the chemical and cultural control program was used in an isolated 18-acre cotton field, about four miles from a cotton field of five acres and more than 10 miles from large acreages of cotton.

Insecticides used were methyl parathion, toxaphene, DDT and pentachlorophenol. They were applied over a two-month period, at five day intervals during the growing season and every seven days during the late-season before defoliation.

This experiment will be continued in 1960 and if the final results are as favorable as the data obtained to date indicate, this chem-season may offer a means for eradication or greatly reducing the boll weevil populations.

Complete results of the program are contained in the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station's new report, "A New Method For The Control of Boll Weevils." Write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station for a copy. Ask for PR - 2110.

County Agents Notes

Still Time To Spray Pecan Trees

J. D. Moore, County Agent

It is still time to spray pecan and fruit trees with a 3 percent dormant oil spray to control scale insects. Use 6 tablespoons per 1 gallon of water of 3 percent oil or its equivalent on pecan and fruit trees. Use 3 tablespoons per 1 gallon of water on shrubbery plants. Do not spray oil sprays on fruit trees after the blooms appear.

Fertilize pecan and fruit trees with 16-20-0 fertilizer at the rate of 1 to 2 lbs per each 1 inch diameter of the tree trunk. Trim all dead or damaged limbs out of all trees. It always helps to do most of pruning at the top of trees to help force out new growth back on older limbs and adds strength to the tree.

Prevent clover bloat - Hungry cows grazing on rank clover are subject to bloat. Feeding hay before turning into pastures will help prevent this trouble.

1960 CAGE CLINIC for poultry producers will be held Wednesday, March 30, in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center, Texas A & M College.

BABY PIGS — Swine producers are experiencing quite a lot of trouble getting baby pigs started because of anemia caused by an iron deficiency. Baby pig anemia has become an increasing problem due to the drastic change in housing pigs. In order to prevent intestinal infections, swine raisers now farrow and raise pigs on solid floors that can be cleaned and disinfected.

Baby pigs are born without sufficient reserve of iron to form the quantity of new red blood cells demanded by their rapid growth. Sows milk is also deficient in iron so that the rapidly growing baby pig must obtain a supplemental source of iron to tide it over until it is old enough to eat feed. In the past swine raisers have attempted to supply this iron by feeding sod or treating the pigs with oral iron preparations. In spite of their efforts, the incidence of baby pig anemia has increased.

In an effort to prevent baby pig anemia, many iron compounds have been offered to swine raisers for injection into new born pigs. Commercial iron preparations are available on the market. Swine producers are advised to consult with a local veterinarian for assistance in correcting this condition.

The dome of the U. S. Capitol is made of cast iron, and weighs 4456 tons.

Results Of 1959

Corn Tests Available

COLLEGE STATION — Texas 30, Harper 3 and Texas 28 produced average yields of about 70 bushels per acre to lead all hybrids in the 1959 Texas corn performance tests conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

These hybrids showed a wide range of adaptation by ranking at or near the top in each of the individual tests.

The highest yielding white hybrid was Texas 17W. Among the yellow hybrids, Texas 34 and 30 were more resistant to insects and diseases and are therefore, recommended particularly for areas where insects and diseases cause serious damage to corn.

In the tests corn was planted 20 locations under dryland and 2 locations under irrigation. Four of the dryland tests were lost because of unfavorable weather conditions. Growers should consider the performance of the hybrids at the nearest test location, and also the average yield for this area. Recommendations for the various areas are based on previous years results as well as those during 1959.

Progress Report 2117 contains a complete summary of the tests and is available free of charge from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station. The report contains charts showing the performance of the varieties tested at various locations and gives recommendations for each area of Texas, based on the tests.

REPORTABLE DISEASES

Dr. T. E. Crump, acting director of the Milam County Health Department released the following reportable diseases in Milam County for the week ending Saturday February 20, 1960: 32 Strep throat, 6 measles, 42 influenza, 4 pneumonia, 2 mumps, 2 gonorrhea and 1 syphilis.

Governor Proclaims March 5-12 As 4-H Club Week For Texas Members

College Station — Governor Price Daniel has by official proclamation designated the week of March 5 - 12 as 4-H Club Week in Texas and has asked all citizens to participate in the observance being planned by 4-H members in the communities and counties of Texas.

The Governor in his proclamation said, "Learn, live and serve through 4-H is the 1960 challenge to Texas 4-H Club members. Since the 4-H program was inaugurated by the United States Government in 1914 more than a million young Texans have received its benefits. "An expanding 4-H program not only teaches the latest practices in agriculture and home economics, but emphasizes character, development and good citizenship. Club members learn by conducting results demonstrations and participating in 4-H activities. By putting into practice in their homes and communities what they learn, club members live and servethrough 4-H.

"County extension agents work with voluntary 4-H adult leaders, 4-H members, their parents, and friends of 4-H in developing a program which provides education and leadership opportunities for the youth of Texas. The 4-H program is under the direction of the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A & M College System.

"Any boy or girl from the ages of 9 to 21 can take part in 4-H Club work. The opportunities offered to 4-H Club members to grow in citizenship and in practical skills are especially valuable to them, the State of Texas and the Nation."

In a letter to all Texas 4-H Club members the Governor said, "Please accept my best wishes for

As older we grow, we are sure to find,

That old friends live mostly in the heart and mind.

Our paths separate and we go different ways,

But never forget old friends of childhood days.

And in our garden of memory they still grow

And we nurture and care for them, row by row.

Some loved ones now tread the golden shore

Their dear faces we see no more. But in our lives they still live and play a part

In that garden of memory -- deep in our heart.

In 1914, when Paris was in danger of being captured by Germans the military governor of the city commandeered 700 taxicabs. "1/4-bale more cotton, 1000-lbs. more maize per acre with ammonia"

W. D. WALKER OF SATIN, TEXAS, reports that ammonia pays profits year after year

"You could tell the difference to the row where we used 50 to 60 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia per acre on maize. The stand was better, the heads were bigger," according to W. D. Walker, who farms 4538 acres. "Ammonia made at least 1000 pounds per acre difference in yield," he reports.

"Where Phillips 66 Ammonia was used cotton was earlier and made a better crop. Approximately 407 bales were produced on 500 acres of blackland and sandy river-bottom. Year after year we have found that ammonia pays profits on all crops."

Mr. Walker points out.

Thousands of Texas farmers use Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre. Field reports prove that Phillips 66 Ammonia (1) produces more high grade lint (2) increases sorghum grain and corn yields (3) boosts wheat and small grain yields (4) stimulates pasture growth for more meat and milk.

See your local Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia Distributor now. You can make more money this year with this 82% nitrogen fertilizer. It can be applied by you or your distributor.

Secret Addresses

Cameron Rotarians

State Sen. Jarrard Secrest, Temple, addressed the Cameron Rotary Club Wednesday in a speech on political campaigns in Texas history.

He cited famous oratorical battles that included the Hogg - Clark debate in Cameron in 1892 that attracted 5,000 Milam Countians. He said the present bandstand in the East Cameron City Park was built especially for the occasion.

In other historic campaigns he cited the success of "Poppy" O'Daniel in becoming governor in the 1930's on the strength of a campaign throughout the state.

In closing, Secrest predicted the governor's race this year "will be dull and uninteresting."

Milam May See Second Wildcat Well Near Sharp

Milam County, which has one deep wildcat by General Crude of Houston being tested at present, and location for another deep try by that company staked, this week had prospects for still another wildcat, this one by a Mississippi operator to be drilled in the western part of the county.

This new test will be located on the Henry Graves land near Sharp. It will be drilled by George Gates of Mississippi, who has taken a number of leases in that area. Reportedly permit depth is 3,000 feet.

Testing was being continued on General Crude Oil Company's No. 2 Perry, deep wildcat about 6 miles south of Milano. This test was being swabbed on perforations at 6063 - 61 feet early this week. San Antonio Express oil editor, Nancy Heard, reported in her column Tuesday.

Perforations at 6651 - 50 feet had been squeezed on this well last week, it was reported.

General Crude also has staked location for its third deep try in that area on a 54 acre tract owned by H. H. Coffield in the William Hill Survey. Drilling on the Coffield will start following completion of General Crude's No. 2 Perry. Permit depth is 10,000 feet.

Basketball Season

Shows 12-24 Mark

A year ago in sports, in the February 26 edition of the Herald the past basketball season was reviewed. It seems that Cameron completed the season with a 12 - 14 mark.

Bill Krueger was at the reins of the roundballers and had competitors like Joe Gerick, Rod Folschinsky, Turner Newton and Eddie Williams working for him. Turner Newton was the top season scorer with 350 points, Rodney Folschinsky second with 234 points and John Wayne Josey was third with 139 points.

Ed Lierman got back into action this week and started running track under Murphy Webster. Lierman had been out of commission for the past 6 months due to a broken vertebrae received in the Cameron - Bellville football game.
